Lent.

BY WM. MORLEY PHEMER, M. A.
There's winter on the hills to-day;
And the wild winds sigh o'er shurbrary land;
And weary nature seems to say,
"The Lenten-time for sinful souls."

The barb is in our heart to-day;
And we are sick with sense of all and sin;
We feebly strive, and faintly pray,
And fasten glad near-for grace within.

We mourn our pride and passion's stain—
The earthly on our hearts unhealed;
The rebel flesh, too oft in vain,
Controlled by the nobler mind.

And all of human power or care,
Which might seem to divide us from among,
To quench the altar-flame of prayer,
Or crush the heavenward strain of song.

Recoil; selfish trust and worldly aims,
No longer on our memories crowd!
Our heart the better fast proclaims,
And "strive to enter in the crowd."

He bore for us the crown of thorns,
 He bade us to "suffer the head":
 The Christian faith is mainly borne,
 And with the heart of contrite pain,
 We keep apart our virgile love,
 And lo! weep—like her of Nazareth—
 The tears which melt the heart of stone.
 We wait not the remorseful cry,
 Once wronged from hopeless traitor's breast:
 The offended Saviour passeth by,
 As e'er to breathe, not wait, but rest.
 Coldly souls on the guarded ark,
 Scarcely deprecate the proud waters roll;
 Exclaim we woe, alone the dark,
 The bird with morning in his soul.

While, humbled, we ourselves as :
For awhile heards the shadows turn
To leaping smiles upon her face.

The bridegroom of the Orebach hath still
His royal rest before her spread,
And there, as ever, and as long will
The "children of life's other-world"

Clasped by him, before he goes,
We cast our cloths, and we are Hearts'ough lavoke, his "other-world"
Who said: "I will not be a child!"

Then ready or for work or war,
We keep the feat that He doth choose
And in His service wait, as
"The bands of wickedness to loose,"

Thus, from our Loat, His grace shall make
An easier road from earth to heaven:
And, pardoned for the Saviour's sake,
"We love—for we have much forgiven."

Homekeepers and House-keepers.

Home's not merely four square walls, though with pictures hung and gildings, and a few flowers, and a few plants. Filled with shrines the house is built. A housekeeper is one who makes all ways and conveniences of the house conduce to the comfort of the inmates. He will allow the members of her household build each a shrine, and will treat it sacred, because it is a shrine to the one has built it. The daughter is not one thing because she wishes to know the ways, and gaze wistfully toward the North. No, she is one thing because she shall around and wish he was—anywhere idling at home. Gradually the housekeeper will quietly add the first to search because this side the horizon, and that will find a vent for his activity with seeing he was led to it by an overture.

It Will be Master!

I expect absolutely nothing of the sort upon whom I see marks of disapproval. Five years ago I remember having met the acquaintance of a young man who had been a Jew in my church, and I said to him, "You have a little while and I will be with you," and he said, "I hardly know how to say that, but I hardly know how to say that." His breath was not so much repelling thing to me. You know it comes; you have seen it; a little fulness—getting a little fuller around the face, and a little fall around the eyes; it is a reddish appearance; then a dorsal appearance then he passes from the reddish appearance into the dorsal, and from the dorsal are purple. This young man is there and he is in the purple state. He has got the man of him. I never knew the man to have. A great many have attacked the enemy with the conviction that "I have used a great many things, but I have never been conquered!" I know and mark them. I see such young men almost every week, and converse with them about this matter of liquor drinking, and all that kind of thing. I have seen a great many of them. I point out to them, who twenty, thirty, ten years ago, were moderate drinkers, but now liquor drinking has become the master. And say, I should think that you would be a great deal better off, if you were to get rid of the liquor. So should I. But I simply prophesy, that if the habit is continued will beat you, it always has. That is the business. You are not a business man, but you are a liquor habit. It is a curse; it is always on the lookout, up on the guard, it slumbers not, and sleeps not. It is like the coming of the thief in the night. It grows, and multiplies, and multiplies and grows. It is like sleep coming upon a man; a man never knew just the moment he goes to sleep; and Proclamation by Valmasca.

Execution of Rebel Leaders.

Rebels defeated in the Torro

Mountains.

Movements of Alexis.

HAYATI, March 1.—Valmasca publishes the following decree: A white male or female, or a free colored male or female who will bring in twenty-five free or slave negroes now roaming

in the mountains to headquarters, will receive a full pardon and $1000 reward. A male or female slave who will bring in 25 negroes from the insurrectionary districts will receive the same reward as the free person. The reward will be paid for each negro brought. Parties unable to bring in the required number, but who bring in some, will receive a pardon and the value of their services.

The Spanish troops captured and executed, near Santa del Embarcadero, the Cuban Captains and Captain Landolito.

A heavy engagement is reported to have taken place in the Torro Mountains, in which the Spaniards were victorious.

Alexis will go on board the fleet tomorrow, to celebrate the anniversary of his father's decease to the throne.

LET THERE BE HARMONY IN THINGS ESSENTIAL—LIBERALITY IN THINGS NOT ESSENTIAL—CHARITY IN ALL

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 8, 1879

No. 264

But Mr Robertson Gladstone had set a plan whereby the offenders will be able to feel more more the dagger of the law than they will be by this plan. On Sunday morning Mr Gladstone intended to visit the main Bridewell to make a driver's delivery, instead of keeping the obvious visit Monday at the expense of newspapers. He will discharge all prisoners who are incapable, but otherwise loose and set them free to go to church; riotous drunkards will be ramped up till following day. But the punishment will not end with a few hours' incarceration in a cell.

Mr Gladstone intends and he secured the adhesion of at least one London newspaper to his scheme—to publish the names and addresses of the offenders, especially each case of respectable character and have them published in the paper next morning. Mr Gladstone has put his faith in the efficacy of this plan, and certainly the terrors of publicity will be a deterrent effect of a money penalty the loss of a few hours' liberty would be none. The plan may be found worth trial in some Canadian cities.

An engraving of a horse-drawn carriage. Two horses are harnessed to the front of the carriage. A driver is seated at the front, and several passengers are seated in the back. The carriage has large spoked wheels and a high roof. The style is typical of 19th-century book illustrations.

CONCENTRATED LYE

Amongst the many imitations of this celebrated article, it is only the Glasgow Lye, for which we have borrowed the name Extract of Soap—and by the way, perhaps he can enlighten us as to what Extract of Soap means. Well, the individual, whose idea of Men and Women are some what hazy, has got the notion of imitating so largely developed, that he has put his hand on the quantity of popular articles which have been brought out for the last few years. This imitator, this borrower of other people's brains, trading on the reputation of an old established house, of which, by a strange assumption of Providence, he has got the management, is palming off the Extract on the public in place of the genuine. Purchasers will notice that the "genuine" has the author's address stamped on each tin. For sale by all the leading Druggists and Grocers throughout the Dominion.

FOR THE FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD

ESTABLISHED IN 1949.

THE AGRICULTURIST is a large professional journal for the 45 years, well printed, and filled with interesting, up-to-date, and authoritative information on all phases of agriculture. It contains each month a Calendar of Opportunities for the year, and the 1950 edition is now available.

For more information, write to the Editor, THE AGRICULTURIST, c/o National Association of Farm Broadcasters, 1500 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The Department for Children and Youth, as represented by the National Association of Farm Broadcasters, is proud to announce that it has been selected by the National Association of Agricultural Broadcasters to represent the American Agricultural (about 100,000 sq. mi.) and American Forestry (about 1,000,000 sq. mi.) programs for the four corners of the U. S. for $14; yearly for $48; and for $77. 1/2, 1/2 year.

W. S. Press on the Position of the Grand Trunk Railway.

The Boston Traveler of Monday has the following in its editorial column: -

"The Grand Trunk may never gain the prominent position among American railways that was predicted when it first went into operation; but it will always be an important road, and it is gratifying to know that it has safely passed a dark period in its history. The road recovers from its business, last year, more than two millions of dollars - nearly thirty per cent - more than a million larger than they were in the preceding year. Its securities are now at a premium of ten per cent higher in the market than they were a year and a half ago. The prospects are most favorable for its still greater increase of business in the present year."

It is not surprising that the road recovers from its business, last year, more than two millions of dollars - nearly thirty per cent - more than a million larger than they were in the preceding year. Its securities are now at a premium of ten per cent higher in the market than they were a year and a half ago. ## The New Church Organ.

BY WILL W. CARLTON. They're got a new organ, see, For they say it's the best they've got. They're done just as they said they'd do, And fetched it into the church.

They're bound the organ shall be seen, And on the preacher's right. They're built up their new machine In everybody's sight.

They're got a chorister and choir, And his voice and note. For it was never so done before, For to praise the Lord by note!

I've been a stouter good 'n' true, For five 'n' thirty year. I've done some good in my part, do, An' prays my duty clear.

I've sung the hymns both slow and quick, Just as the preacher led. And when, when, when, when, when, when, I come to lead the band.

And I right in my later days, An' fairly crowded out. To-day the preacher good old dear, With tears in his eyes, Read - "I can read my text To mankind in the skies."

I say lead that blessed hymn - I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long. I say sing it all day long, I say sing it all day long.

I say sing it all day

This image shows a vertical strip of aged, yellowed paper, likely a book endpaper or flyleaf. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance with various shades of yellow and brown. There are several dark, irregular stains and marks, particularly along the right edge, which could be ink or water damage. The overall appearance is that of an old, worn document.

We continue the report of Mr. Willard's speech, commencing yesterday:

Geology does not tell us the interior and depth of the earth, but it tells us how to cook with it. It tells us that the interior of the earth is not a solid mass, but a series of layers, each of which has its own characteristics. It tells us that the interior

Despatches To 4 P. M.

LONDON, MARCH 18.—A despatch received from the Admiralty office, the naval authorities at Valletta, Malta, reports that the iron-plated man-of-war Lord Clyde was saluted on a reef near the island of Pantelleria, has been damaged. The vessel has sustained considerable damage and will go back to Valletta for repairs.

PARIS, MARCH 18.—To-day being the anniversary of the rising of the Commune, it is feared that demonstrations attended with violence may be made in this city to celebrate the event, and the Government has taken precautions for the suppression of all disturances.

Calcutta, March 18.—The assassin of Mr. Mayo has been executed. He made a confession, in which he declared that the death of Mr. Mayo was not the result of a conspiracy, but was the result of a personal grudge. He also admitted that he had been aided by others in the execution of his crime. He was executed by hanging at the gallies at the Central Jail.

News Condensed.

agency to be accredited to the Court here, whose position could not last any more than understanding and who would furnish without records of the waste and demands of the Church. I did not, however, venture to take any further steps in the matter, as public opinion in general seemed adverse to the proposal. The prices considered by the House to avoid "the great calamities which theological discussion would bring on the Fatherland," in my opinion, are too high to be arranged matters as to have the least possible concern with religion in our parliamentary proceedings. A government which would not to the principle of religious equality must not be asked to adopt a sectarian policy. We have no special State religion in this country."

Daily Intelligence.

BEVELVILLE, MONDAY, MARCH 23.

THE WEATHER.—The air was more spring-like than for some time past. Still this mildness, however, may yet have a chance to make some sugar this year.

PALM SUNDAY.—The anniversary of the Lord's entry into Jerusalem was duly observed yesterday in the customary manner by Roman Catholics, who bore with them to church small twigs of evergreen.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.—The deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank are shown by a return from Ottawa to have increased by $88,000 during the month of February.

IMMENSE QUANTITIES OF LUMBER.—It is calculated that the amount of logs for lumber manufacture, put into the various streams of Michigan State during the present season, is not less than two thousand million of feet, more than the moiety of which is on the Muskegon, Manistee and Saginaw rivers. Apprehensions are entertained of the capacity of these rivers to float all the logs to the mills at their outlets.

MEXICAN BATTLES.—Tired of the pursuit of what "glory" is to be gained in civil war, a band of Mexicans determined upon reaping more substantial advantage, following the president as he fled to the city of Mexico, and the English Borden. They have established a camp near Roma, Texas, on the American side of the line, and from thence are making forays into Mexico territory. Uncle Sam is preparing to take a step to this impediment.

TWO MURDERS.—Mulberry Street, New York was the scene on Saturday of two murders, occurring within a few doors of each other, and bearing a remarkable similarity in their brutal details. Each originated in a drunken quarrel, in each the homicides were two men and wife, the fatal injury was in each case inflicted by throwing the victim down stairs; and the four male actors in the tragedy were all Irish laborers.

VICTORIA COLLEGE.—An effort is being made by some of the leading men in Toronto to have Victoria College removed from Cobourg to this City. The Obourg World don't like the idea and says:—

"Victoria College is the means of drawing about one hundred and fifty young men every year from all parts of the country to Cobourg, and besides giving a status to the town as the seat of the University, leads to the expenditure of at least fifty thousand dollars a year in our midst."

FREE ROADS.—The Kingston papers are making another effort to abolish tolls on the roads leading into Kingston. This is a rising, in view of the advantages gained by those counties which long ago made all their roads free, that Kingston should stick to the old fogy system of toll roads. Kingston but once abolished this nuisance and it will find the trade largely increased, and the cost of keeping the County Roads in repair will not be so very much as it is at present. We hope success will crown the efforts of our contemporaries this time.

The Very Latest.

DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.

Trial Postponed.

Colonists for Nebraska.

The Tishborne Claimant.

Minister, Schenck's Reception.

Election Troubles in Spain.

Scarcity of Coal in Towns on the Hudson.

Snow Storm at Poughkeepsie.

London, March 27.—The trial of William Chester Minor, the American who shot and killed George Meritt in Lambeth, on the 17th of February, has been postponed, the prisoner's counsel having entered a plea of insanity.

The steamship Milwaukee, which left Liverpool yesterday for Montreal, Va., and Baltimore, Md., took out 150 Colonists who intend to settle in Nebraska.

The Tishborne claimant, who is now in prison awaiting trial on a charge of murder, has published a card appealing to the public for subscribers to aid him in making his defence.

The reception of the season of Mr. M. R. C. Schenck is anticipated to take place next Saturday night.

MADRID, March 27.—As the time for the elections for members of the Cortes approaches, indications of disorder become more apparent. Slight disturbances have occurred at Granada, resulting thus far in the wounding of one person.

Poughkeepsie, March 27.—A scarcity of coal and water is reported all along the Hudson River.

A severe snow storm has prevailed all day in this vicinity.

London, March 27.—The steamship "Edinburgh," from New York, has arrived at Liverpool, and "Perseus" from New York, March 27.—The "City of London" has arrived from Liverpool, and "Perseus" from New York.

Poughkeepsie, March 27.—The "Barnabas" arrived out to-day.

Special Telegram This Afternoon.

FIRE IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, March 27.—Gault's Metal Works was burned this morning. The fire was burning for a long time before any water could be procured. Inured in the Liverpool and London for $5,000; Royal, $5,000; Commercial, $5,000; and the steam fire engine did good service.

British Justice.

Mr. Murphy, one of the speakers at the St. Patrick's celebration held in Toronto on Monday, 18th, speaking in favor of "Home Rule," said that Irishmen were capable of governing themselves, and, in proof, pointed to the fact that the head of the Government of Australia at that moment was an Irishman, on whom, at one time, his enemies had looked as a rebel. Until a few weeks ago, until struck down by the hand of an assassin, it was an Irishman who had governed India for some time. (A roar of applause followed the speaker.) The Government-General of Canada was an Irishman, and so was the leader of the Government of Ontario.

Edward Blake, Irishman, said that when the Government of the United Kingdom was a British-possessed Englishman. In his enthusiasm the speaker forgot that his facts proved more than he intended. The fact of Irishmen occupying such prominent positions under the British Government when they were the Government of half a century, and still maintain the long established reputation as the best governed of all the British-possessed Englishmen.
